WAKES, WAR TALK

Franklin, N. J., Doubles Its Police Force at Additional Cost of $1,500 a Year.

GIVE NEW MAN A HORSE

But He's So Big and It's So Small, He Fears He'll Have to Carry It Over Hills.

PRANKLIN. N. J., Sept. 18 .- War caused so many disputes in recent the cherriff linbert N Heath of Hockensack. months among Frankfiu's foreign population of 2,400 that the police force has been doubled.

The New Jersey Brick Company employs 1,500 men Russians, Poles, bed me so for several years that I Railroad has 500 Italians on its Frankexpected to have to undergo an operation, but the first be tile I took of Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound relieved me of the pains in my side and I continued its use until I became regular and free taking in Europe. Fights followed.

Let there be a wake or a wedding in any of the foreign sections and the entire police forey was nothing that they knew of. I am thankful for such a good medicine and will always give it the highest praise."

Mrs. C. H. GRIFFITH, 1868 Constant St., Cleveland, Ohio.

Railroad has 900 Italiane on its Frank-lining to undergo an operation, but the first on the working they nover taking as the men were working they nover taking as the men were for pourself by lim on rainy days or after getting paid on Saturday, when grog shops were for yourself by lim on staturday, when grog shops were for yourself by lim on rainy days or after getting paid on Saturday, when grog shops were for yourself by lim on some its Frank.

Company employees just couldn't agree as to the turn affairs were taking in Europe. Fights followed.

Let there be a wake or a wedding in any of the foreign sections and the entire police forey was needed to restore quiet.

On occasions there were rival wakes or rival weddings and Police—man Buckley could not be at both places the same time. Franklin is a series of hills. Buckley nearly ran his legs off to his efforts to do his his legs off in his efforts to do his duty, but found it impossible.

The Borough Council met and the very serious question was brought up. Mayor E. D. Suchter, who is interested in the brick company, and B. Nicholis, head of the H. Nicholls quarry at Franklin, agreed that only a constabulary policeman, such as keep order across the Pennsylvania line. Do you remember that the eating line. Could be expected to make war talk, weddings and wakes peaceable.

"And I'll give a horse to our man."

Mr. Nicholls, who has quite a reputation as a horseman, said. "I'll give a good horse."

Across the State line went representatives of the Borough Council, and they found Herbart C. I make them grow that much faster and increases the danger of blood poison. No cutting is necessary by using "Gets." It." Use it to-night and end your corny spinteres.

tatives of the Borough Council, and they found Herbert C. Irons, a big, muscular chap, who had been in the a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence Co., Chicago. "Gets-It" is sold in New Pennsylvania Constabulary some time, York by Riker-Hegeman.
